

“Little is Much When God is in It!”

Perhaps this title brings back a melody from the distant recesses of your mind. (If not, no worries. It’s on YouTube.) This old song recently came to mind as we’ve seen God take “small mustard seed” beginnings and turn them into Kingdom-sized miracles with no end to the long-lasting impact in sight!

So catch this...Pierre (name changed) came to faith in Christ in the USA through an exchange program. His youth pastor clued Blair in to Pierre’s return to Belgium and his “coincidental” enrollment on the campus here. After his arrival, they began to meet, Pierre got involved in Students for Christ-Belgium, and his faith began to show through his changed life. His agnostic brother eventually became intrigued to the point of announcing that he has now been praying for about a month, and he “might even come with [Pierre] to SFC in the future.” Little is much...

Now get this...Mélanie’s lifestyle of Christ so impacted and called into question the lack of belief in her sister Anne-Sophie, that she began asking questions of Mélanie. The seed of faith began growing in Anne-Sophie as well, and she later attended the SFC summer Connect conference. Recently, we received an email from Anne-Sophie asking for direction because she is so hungry for more of God and wants to know how to “study the Bible, get to know other Christians, serve God in a church, work for Him! Mustard seed stuff...from tiny beginnings to world-wide size!

How about this...It was one of those delightfully surprised feelings washing over us after seeing Jérôme’s recent baptism photos. Blair had only talked with him once or twice in Liège, where he studied, but his spiritual hunger was almost palpable. Charles Gravely, our missionary associate at the time, now leading SFC-Brussels, was instrumental in planting and watering seeds of faith in Jérôme’s life. When Charles left Liège, we couldn’t foresee God’s orchestration for Jérôme, but the Spirit had things covered, for this past Sunday, we learned that Jérôme is now attending a church planted by a group of former student leaders from SFC-Liège! The seeds are still bearing fruit!

Still Much to be Done

The above testimonies to God’s power to change lives leave us speechless as He touches students across Europe. But the burden for those who are without Christ compels us to continue laboring, praying for more workers, and training more students to reach their campuses. No stronger has this been impressed on us than in the recent death of a student on the university where we live. Apparently, after a drinking party Nicolas never made it to his dorm but was found several days later drowned in the icy waters of our neighborhood lake. A 19-year-old with practically his entire life ahead of him is now in eternity. And we must ask ourselves the question, “What if SFC students here had been able to introduce him to God’s Good News?” Perhaps that seed would have germinated to grow another testimony.

Please pray for Pierre, Anne-Sophie, and Jérôme who are experiencing abundant life in Jesus. Your continued partnership and prayer will help us to keep reaching out to students and hopefully others like Nicolas. Thank you.

USA-Bound

We’re looking forward to re-connecting with you this next year. Please contact us if you would like us to be a part of any missions emphasis your church may be planning or to simply meet and talk about how good God is!

He is Risen Indeed!
